

Leadership Training Programme for Outstanding PiXL Headteachers of the Future

"It really helped hearing from people who had just started their headship.

"A truly worthwhile CPD programme in every sense - thank you for making this happen! "

"Outstanding quality and variety of speakers."

"Outstanding speakers who provided exceptional words of wisdom for someone seeking or starting their first headship. "

"It is the most relevant course I have done."

Outstanding Headteachers of the Future

Currency ● Character ● Culture

A leadership training programme has been created for up to 50 of our most talented recently appointed PiXL headteachers, PiXL headteachers designate and aspiring.

The programme is supported by tutorials, led by presenters including: Steve Chalke, Geoff Barton, Estelle Morris and Matthew Syed.

Mentoring will be given from highly successful PiXL leaders with headship experience and expertise with delegates visiting the host leadership coach's school/academy.

When and where

28th/29th September 2017: York Residential

26th/27th January 2018: Oxford Residential

13th June 2018: London

Cost: The programme costs £3,000 (with an option to split the cost over two years).

To apply: Please email Jason (Jason@pixl.org.uk) to request the application form.

Jeff Dawkins, Course Director

E: jeffdawkins@me.com, Mobile: 07825998646