

While in an ideal world we would be hosting our conferences in the Autumn term in Central London, we hope instead that you are able to join us online. Until at least January 2021, all PiXL meetings will be digital and will be streamed on our new online platform: <https://auth.pixl.org.uk/tv>. We have included all main meeting dates below for all of our sectors. There is no charge for attending these digital events, they are included in your membership.
